TUXEDO PARK: The Gift of Nature

The story of Tuxedo Park's extraordinary biodiversity and beautiful landscapes are celebrated in a hardcover book featuring over 200 breathtaking original color photographs. $95

TUXEDO PARK: The Historic Houses

The first and only book that examines the architecture of Tuxedo Park provides unique views of the village's Gilded Age mansions designed by well-known architects including Bruce Price, Carrere & Hastings, McKim, Mead & White, and Warren & Wetmore. The book features 230 color photographs by contemporary photo artist James Bleecker. It also provides a succinct history of the community from its founding in 1886 to 1950, illustrated with 50 vintage postcards and photographs, including historic landscapes and interior images of the period houses. $85

TUXEDO PARK: Lives, Legacies, Legends

Tuxedo Park has been home to famous and fascinating people: Waldorf Astor, Augustus Juilliard, Dorothy Draper and Emily Post, to name a few. This book tells the colorful stories of the many individuals and families who created Tuxedo Park from 1886 through the mid-1940s. From Gilded-Age luminaries to the skillful immigrant craftsmen who forged the village's historic buildings, private diaries and oral accounts are woven into the region's uncirculated written records. TUXEDO PARK: Lives, Legacies, Legends is illustrated with 150 previously unpublished historical images drawn from family, museum, and government archives. $80
